SPAIN ARMED CAMP

Soldiers Are Stationed Everywhere to Prevent a Probable Uprising.

LARGE CITIES RESTLESS

(American News Service)

Madrid, Oct. 14.—The fall of revolt which has hung over Spain today became more menacing than at any previous time as the republicans, radicals and socialists prepared to celebrate the first anniversary of the execution of Prof. Francisco Ferrer, who was put to death following the Barcelona outbreak last year as an inciter of anarchy.

Spain's drastic military precautions to stamp out revolt against Alfonso's throne were climaxed today. For a fortnight troops have been massed in the barracks at Madrid, Valencia, Barcelona and other centers of dissension. In Catalonia the hotbed of agitation against the monarchy, Gen. Weyler, the governor general, who declared that he would stiffen the first signs of rebellion in blood was at the head of a great military force.

Not alone the cities, but Spain in its entirety was an armed camp. The frontier and provincial districts were alive with soldiers. Artillery was massed at all strategic points. Soldiers with bayoneted guns and double rounds of ammunition in their bandoliers were used as police.

There is no medicine so safe and at the same time so pleasant to take as Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. The positive cure for all diseases arising from stomach trouble. The price is very reasonable—50c and $1.
